

Description: List of land-based marine terminals within our study area and that attributes used either directly or indirectly for our study.

Sheets: British Columbia

- Name: The name of the location or facility.
- Latitude: The geographical latitude coordinate of the location.
- Longitude: The geographical longitude coordinate of the location.
- Vancouver Island?: Indicates whether the location is on Vancouver Island ('y' for yes, 'n' for no).
- Google Maps: A link to the location on Google Maps.
- Source: A link to the source document or information about the location.
- cargo types destination: Describes the types of cargo that are destined for this location.
- cargo types origin: Describes the types of cargo that originate from this location.
- cargo type information source: The source of the information regarding the cargo types.
- Note:
- Search Radius (km): The distance from marine terminal used to attribute tank traffic to terminal as an origin or destination.

Sheet: Washington

- FSID: Facility Site ID.
- FacilityName: The name of the facility.
- FacilityAlternateName: An alternate name for the facility.
- FacilityECYName: The Department of Ecology name for the facility.
- ClassType: The class type of the facility.
- EcologyProgram: The Ecology program associated with the facility.
- FacilityType: The type of facility.
- OilProducts: The oil products handled at the facility (based on 2018 ECY data).
- FacilitySiteLink: A link to the facility site information.
- DockLatNumber: The latitude number of the dock.
- DockLongNumber: The longitude number of the dock.
- OutsideSalishSea: Indicates if the facility is outside the Salish Sea.
- Search Radius: The distance from marine terminal used to attribute tank traffic to terminal as an origin or destination.
- Notes: Additional notes about the facility.